AALBÆK BADEHOTEL

A little history

HC. Andersen

It is said that HC Andersen himself, made a stop at Aalbæk Badehotel to get food and shelter for both himself and the driver on the way to Skagen.

A local poet named C. Andersen had heard about the famous poet's visit and wanted to meet him, so he put on his finest clothes and went to Aalbæk Badehotel, but to the disappointment of the poor poet he was chased at the door of the host with this expression "the great poet shall not be disturbed by such a house-poet."

Holger Drachmann

Holger Drachmann should also have visited Aalbæk Badehotel with a friend.

The horses had to be changed so they made a stop at the hotel. Drachmann describes "Marie's living room" as an original whitewashed room with wooden benches on either side of one red-painted table, and a kind of cave with alcove in one side of the living room.

From Copenhagen to Skagen

A true story is the one about a woman who walked with her pram from Copenhagen to Skagen to advertise for a stroller company.

She stayed at Aalbæk Badehotel with her one and a half year old child to gather strength for the rest of the trip.

The story was told by Marie and Karsten Sørensen who were the host couple at the beach hotel through almost 40 years.
